The screenshot displays the ALLY web interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Dispatch' and 'Calls' tabs. Below this, the 'ALARMS' section shows 'No alarms found'. The 'ACTIVE CALLS' section lists two calls: Call 3 (High priority, Combative or Unruly Patient, En Route) and Call 2 (Alarm, En Route). The 'ACTIVE UNITS' section shows three units: 24-Mason (En Route), 101 (On Duty), and 11-Hawkes (On Duty). The 'INACTIVE UNITS' section shows three units: 904-Banks, 908-Cosgrove, and Haddon. A map at the bottom shows the location of the units and calls. CLERY REPORTING

The Clery Reporting Module is an adaptive compliance tool for universities and colleges. It has enormous value to these markets due to the fact that all federally funded universities and colleges are required to categorize, store and publicly publish an annual report on specific crime statistics occurring on campus. This requires significant manpower overhead and can incur hefty fines for errors. Ally's Clery module helps with data collection and accuracy analysis, as well as compliance report output. This tool can significantly reduce the workload and liability risk of universities and colleges.

3.2 Minimum Initial Term. For certain Subscription Services, a minimum initial term greater than one year may be required ("Minimum Initial Term"). Following the Minimum Initial Term, this Agreement will automatically renew upon each anniversary of the Effective Date for a successive renewal term of the same duration as the Minimum Initial Term, unless either Party: 1) notifies the other of its intention to not renew the Agreement (in whole or part) at least thirty (30) days before the anniversary date; 2) requests an alternate term; or 3) terminates in accordance with the termination provision in the Agreement, including non-payment of fees for the renewal period by the anniversary date.

11.3 Essential term. The parties acknowledge that the prices have been set and the Agreement entered into in reliance upon these limitations of liability and that all such limitations form an essential basis of the bargain between the parties.

12 DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

12.1 Default By a Party. If either Party fails to perform a material obligation under this Agreement, the other Party may consider the non-performing Party to be in default (unless a Force Majeure causes the failure) and may assert a default claim by giving the non-performing Party a written, detailed notice of default. Except for a default by Customer for failing to pay any amount when due under this Agreement which must be cured immediately, the defaulting Party will have thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice of default to either cure the default or, if the default is not curable within thirty (30) days, provide a written cure plan. The defaulting Party will begin implementing the cure plan immediately after receipt of notice by the other Party that it approves the plan. If Customer is the defaulting Party, Motorola may stop work on the project until it approves the Customer's cure plan.

12.2 Failure to Cure. If a defaulting Party fails to cure the default as provided above in Section 12.1, unless otherwise agreed in writing, the non-defaulting Party may terminate any unfulfilled portion of this Agreement. In the event of a termination for default, the defaulting Party will promptly return to the non-defaulting Party any of its Confidential Information. If Customer is the non-defaulting Party, terminates this Agreement as permitted by this Section, and procures the Services through a third party, Customer may as its exclusive remedy recover from Motorola reasonable costs incurred to procure the Services (but not additional or out of scope services) less the unpaid portion of the Contract Price. Customer agrees to mitigate damages and provide Motorola with detailed invoices substantiating the charges.

12.3 No Refund. If a subscription is terminated for any reason prior to the end of the Subscription Services Term or other subscription period set forth in the Incorporated Documents or otherwise agreed to in writing by the Parties, no refund or credit will be provided.

12.4 Cancellation Fee. If an Initial Minimum Term applies and Customer terminates prior to the end of the Initial Minimum Term, Customer will be required to pay a cancellation fee of up to fifty percent (50%) of the remaining balance of subscription fees for the Initial Minimum Term.

12.5 Return of Discount. If Customer is afforded a discount in exchange for a term commitment longer than one year, early termination will result in an early termination fee, representing a return of the discount off of list price.

12.6 Return Confidential Information. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement, Customer will return or certify the destruction of all Confidential Information and Solution Data.

Any sales transaction following Motorola's quote is based on and subject to the terms and conditions of the valid and executed written contract between Customer Agreement(") that authorizes Customer to purchase equipment and/or services or license software (collectively "Products"). If no Underlying Agreement exists between Customer and Motorola, Motorola's Standard Terms of Use and Motorola's Standard Terms and Conditions of Sales and Supply shall govern the purchase of the Products.

12.7 Connection Terminated. Certain Subscription Services require a connection to Customer systems to access Customer Data (e.g. predictive or analytic services). Upon termination, connection to relevant data sources will be disconnected and Motorola will no longer extract any CustomerData.

12.8 Equipment Return. Any equipment provided by Motorola for use with the Subscription Services, must be returned within thirty (30) days of the date of termination, at Customer's expense. If equipment is not returned within this time frame, Motorola reserves the right to invoice the Customer for the purchase price of the unreturned equipment.

12.9 Five Year Term. Motorola provides equipment for use in connection with certain Subscription Services. Upon expiration and non-renewal of a five (5) year subscription Term, Title to the equipment will automatically transfer to Customer upon the subscription expiration date.

13. DISPUTES

13.1 Settlement. The parties will attempt to settle any dispute arising from this Agreement (except for a claim relating to intellectual property or breach of confidentiality) through consultation and a spirit of mutual cooperation. The dispute will be escalated to appropriate higher-level managers of the parties, if necessary. If cooperative efforts fail, the dispute will be mediated by a mediator chosen jointly by the parties within thirty (30) days after notice by one of the parties demanding non-binding mediation. The parties will not unreasonably withhold consent to the selection of a mediator, will share the cost of the mediation equally, may agree to postpone mediation until they have completed some specified but limited discovery about the dispute, and may replace mediation with some other form of non-binding alternative dispute resolution ("ADR").

13.2 Litigation. A Party may submit to a court of competent jurisdiction any claim relating to intellectual property, breach of confidentiality, or any dispute that cannot be resolved between the parties through negotiation or mediation within two (2) months after the date of the initial demand for non-binding mediation. Each Party consents to jurisdiction over it by that court. The use of ADR procedures will not be considered under the doctrine of laches, waiver, or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either Party. Either Party may resort to the judicial proceedings described in this section before the expiration of the two-month ADR period if good faith efforts to resolve the dispute under these procedures have been unsuccessful; or interim relief from the court is necessary to prevent serious and irreparable injury to the Party.

14. SECURITY.

14.1 Industry Standard. Motorola will maintain industry standard security measures to protect the Solution from intrusion, breach, or corruption. During the term of Agreement, if the Solution enables access to Criminal Justice Information ("CJI"), as defined by the Criminal Justice Information Services Security Policy ("CJIS"), Motorola will provide and comply with a CJIS Security Addendum. Any additional Security measure desired by Customer may be available for an additional fee.

14.2 Background checks. Motorola will require its personnel that access CJI to submit to a background check based on submission of FBI fingerprint cards.

14.3 Customer Security Measures. Customer is independently responsible for establishing and maintaining its own policies and procedures and for ensuring compliance with CJIS and other security requirements that are outside the scope of the Subscription Services provided. Customer must establish and ensure compliance with access control policies and procedures, including password security measures. Further, Customer must maintain industry standard security and protective data privacy

Any sales transaction following Motorola's quote is based on and subject to the terms and conditions of the valid and executed written contract between Customer Agreement("") that authorizes Customer to purchase equipment and/or services or license software (collectively "Products"). If no Underlying Agreement exists between Motorola's Standard Terms of Use and Motorola's Standard Terms and Conditions of Sales and Supply shall govern the purchase of the Products.

measures. Motorola disclaims any responsibility or liability whatsoever for the security or preservation of Customer Data or Solution Data once accessed or viewed by Customer or its representatives. Motorola further disclaims any responsibility or liability whatsoever that relates to or arise from Customer's failure to maintain industry standard security and data privacy measures and controls, including but not limited to lost or stolen passwords. Motorola reserves the right to terminate the Service if Customer's failure to maintain or comply with industry standard security and control measures negatively impacts the Service, Solution, or Motorola's own security measures.

14.4 Breach Response Plan. Both parties will maintain and follow a breach response plan consistent with the standards of their respective industries.

15. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

15.1. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

15.1.1. Treatment of Confidential Information. During the term of this Agreement, the parties may provide each other with Confidential Information. Licensed Products, and all Deliverables will be deemed to be Motorola's Confidential Information. Each Party will: maintain the confidentiality of the other Party's Confidential Information and not disclose it to any third party, except as authorized by the disclosing Party in writing or as required by a court of competent jurisdiction; restrict disclosure of the Confidential Information to its employees who have a "need to know" and not copy or reproduce the Confidential Information; take necessary and appropriate precautions to guard the confidentiality of the Confidential Information, including informing its employees who handle the Confidential Information that it is confidential and is not to be disclosed to others, but those precautions will be at least the same degree of care that the receiving Party applies to its own confidential information and will not be less than reasonable care; and use the Confidential Information only in furtherance of the performance of this Agreement or pursuant to the license granted immediately below.

15.1.2. Ownership of Confidential Information. The disclosing Party owns and retains all of its Proprietary Rights in and to its Confidential Information, except the disclosing Party hereby grants to the receiving Party the limited right and license, on a non-exclusive, irrevocable, and royalty-free basis, to use the Confidential Information for any lawful, internal business purpose in the manner and to the extent permitted by this Agreement.

15.2. PRESERVATION OF PROPRIETARY RIGHTS.

15.2.1 Proprietary Solution. Customer acknowledges that the Licensed Products and any associated Documentation, data, and methodologies used in providing Services are proprietary to Motorola or its third party licensors and contain valuable trade secrets. In accordance with this Agreement, Customer and its employees shall treat the Solution and all Proprietary Rights as Confidential Information and will maintain the strictest confidence.

15.2.2. Ownership. Each Party owns and retains all of its Proprietary Rights that exist on the Effective Date. Motorola owns and retains all Proprietary Rights that are developed, originated, or prepared in connection with providing the Deliverables or Services to Customer, and this Agreement does not grant to Customer any shared development rights. At Motorola's request and expense, Customer will execute all papers and provide reasonable assistance to Motorola to enable Motorola to establish the Proprietary Rights. Unless otherwise explicitly stated herein, this Agreement does not restrict a Party concerning its own Proprietary Rights and is not a grant (either directly or by implication, estoppel, or otherwise) of a Party's Proprietary Rights to the other Party.

Any sales transaction following Motorola's quote is based on and subject to the terms and conditions of the valid and executed written contract between Customer Agreement("") that authorizes Customer to purchase equipment and/or services or license software (collectively "Products"). If no Underlying Agreement exists between Motorola's Standard Terms of Use and Motorola's Standard Terms and Conditions of Sales and Supply shall govern the purchase of the Products.

15.3 Remedies. Because Licensed Products contain valuable trade secrets and proprietary information of Motorola, its vendors and licensors, Customer acknowledges and agrees that any actual or threatened breach of this Section will constitute immediate, irreparable harm to Motorola for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy, and that injunctive relief is an appropriate remedy for such breach. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Motorola reserves the right to obtain injunctive relief and any other appropriate remedies from any court of competent jurisdiction in connection with any actual, alleged, or suspected breach of Section 3, infringement, misappropriation or violation of Motorola's Property Rights, or the unauthorized use of Motorola's Confidential Information. Any such action or proceeding may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the parties' rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative.

16. GENERAL

16.1 Future Regulatory Requirements. The Parties acknowledge and agree that this is an evolving technological area and therefore, laws and regulations regarding Subscription Services and use of the Solution may change. Changes to existing Subscription Services or Solution required to achieve regulatory compliance may be available for an additional fee. Any required changes may also impact the Fees for services.

16.2 Compliance with Applicable Laws. Each Party will comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations and rules concerning the performance of this Agreement. Further, Customer will comply with all applicable export and import control laws and regulations in its use of the Licensed Products and Subscription Services. In particular, Customer will not export or re-export the Licensed Products without Motorola's prior written consent, and, if such consent is granted, without Customer first obtaining all required United States and foreign government licenses. Customer further agrees to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in providing the Customer Data to Motorola, and Customer warrants and represents to Motorola that Customer has all rights necessary to provide such Customer Data to Motorola for the uses as contemplated hereunder. Customer shall obtain at its expense all necessary licenses, permits and regulatory approvals required by any and all governmental authorities as may from time to time be required in connection with its activities related to this Agreement. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Customer will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Motorola from and against any violation of such laws or regulations by Customer or any of its agents, officers, directors, or employees.

16.3 Audit. Motorola reserves the right to monitor and audit use of the Subscription Services. Customer will cooperate and will require Users to cooperate with such monitoring or audit.

16.4 Assignability. Except as provided herein, neither Party may assign this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. Any attempted assignment, delegation, or transfer without the necessary consent will be void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Motorola may assign this Agreement to any of its affiliates or its right to receive payment without the prior consent of Customer. In addition, in the event Motorola separates one or more of its businesses (each a "Separated Business"), whether by way of a sale, establishment of a joint venture, spin-off or otherwise (each a "Separation Event"), Motorola may, without the prior written consent of the other Party and at no additional cost to Motorola, assign this Agreement such that it will continue to benefit the Separated Business and its affiliates (and Motorola and its affiliates, to the extent applicable) following the Separation Event. Motorola may subcontract any of the work, but subcontracting will not relieve Motorola of its duties under this Agreement.

16.5 Subcontracting. Motorola may subcontract any portion of the Subscription Services without prior notice or consent of Customer.

Any sales transaction following Motorola's quote is based on and subject to the terms and conditions of the valid and executed written contract between Customer Agreement("") that authorizes Customer to purchase equipment and/or services or license software (collectively "Products"). If no Underlying Agreement exists between Motorola's Standard Terms of Use and Motorola's Standard Terms and Conditions of Sales and Supply shall govern the purchase of the Products.

16.6 Waiver. Failure or delay by either Party to exercise a right or power will not be a waiver of the right or power. For a waiver of a right or power to be effective, it must be in a writing signed by the waiving Party. An effective waiver of a right or power will not be construed as either a future or continuing waiver of that same right or power, or the waiver of any other right or power.

16.7 Severability. If a court of competent jurisdiction renders any part of this Agreement invalid or otherwise unenforceable, that part will be severed and the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect.

16.8 Independent Contractors. Each Party will perform its duties under this Agreement as an independent contractor. The parties and their personnel will not be considered to be employees or agents of the other Party. Nothing in this Agreement will be interpreted as granting either Party the right or authority to make commitments of any kind for the other. This Agreement will not constitute, create, or be interpreted as a joint venture, partnership or formal business organization of any kind.

16.9 Headings. The section headings in this Agreement are inserted only for convenience and are not to be construed as part of this Agreement or as a limitation of the scope of the particular section to which the heading refers. This Agreement will be fairly interpreted in accordance with its terms and conditions and not for or against either Party.

16.10 Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights and duties of the parties will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois.

16.11 Notices. Notices required under this Agreement to be given by one Party to the other must be in writing and either personally delivered or sent to the address provided by the other Party by certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid (or by a recognized courier service, such as Federal Express, UPS, or DHL), or by facsimile with correct answerback received, and will be effective upon receipt.

16.12 Authority to Execute Agreement. Each Party represents that it has obtained all necessary approvals, consents and authorizations to enter into this Agreement and to perform its duties under this Agreement; the person executing this Agreement on its behalf has the authority to do so; upon execution and delivery of this Agreement by the parties, it is a valid and binding contract, enforceable in accordance with its terms; and the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement does not violate any bylaw, charter, regulation, law or any other governing authority of the Party.

16.13 Return of Equipment. Upon termination of the contract for any reason, Customer shall return to Motorola all equipment delivered to Customer, if any.

16.14. Survival of Terms. The following provisions survives the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason: if any payment obligations exist, Section 5 (Subscription Fees); Section 11 (Limitation of Liability); Section 12 (Default and Termination); Section 13 (Disputes); Section 15 (Confidential Information and Proprietary Rights); and all General provisions in Section 16.

16.15. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement and any Incorporated Documents or related attachments constitute the entire agreement of the Parties regarding the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all previous agreements, proposals, and understandings, whether written or oral, relating to this subject matter. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by authorized representatives of both Parties. The preprinted terms and conditions found on any Customer purchase or purchase order, acknowledgment or other form will not be considered an amendment or modification of this Agreement, even if a representative of each Party signs that document.
