   (b) In the event WHITERISK has not actually received payment on an invoice within twenty-one (21) days of its date of issue, WHITERISK will begin charging interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.50%) per month, subject to a minimum monthly charge of $25, until paid in full. If a WHITERISK invoice is not paid within thirty-one (31) days of its issue date, CLIENT’s account is delinquent and WHITERISK may, at its sole option at any time thereafter, cease all work for CLIENT and initiate all collection and debt protection measures lawfully available to WHITERISK. CLIENT will be responsible for all costs WHITERISK incurs in pursuing and collecting the debt plus 1.50% interest per month thereon. Payments are applied to the oldest balance first regardless of the designation on a payment device.

10. Work under this contract is deemed to be personal in nature, WHITERISK cannot assign this Contract without CLIENT’s consent to such assignment. Nevertheless, nothing shall prohibit WHITERISK (i) from assigning this Contract or the Fee for the Work to any other member of The Fred R. White Risk Practice; or (ii) from designating who shall perform the Work; or (iii) from contracting any portion of the Work; or (iv) from enlisting the services of other firms in accomplishing the duties and services set out hereunder. When such other firms are enlisted, they may, at WHITERISK’s option, be billed as part of WHITERISK’s services. WHITERISK agrees to require each such person or entity to comply with all terms of this contract as they apply to WHITERISK.

11. Intellectual Property. (a) CLIENT agrees: (i) that all written material WHITERISK or its Professional(s) creates is WHITERISK’s intellectual property; (ii) that none of such Work constitutes Work for Hire; (iii) that WHITERISK retains all rights and privileges normally accorded intellectual property; and (iv) that WHITERISK does not grant CLIENT any license under this Contract directly or by implication, estoppels or otherwise for any trademarks, copyrights, patents, trade secrets or other forms of intellectual property. (b) CLIENT agrees not to change or allow anyone else to change any documents or manuals WHITERISK or its Professional(s) furnishes to CLIENT. (c) CLIENT agrees not to copy or otherwise reproduce or allow anyone else to copy or reproduce any of the documents or manuals WHITERISK or its Professional(s) furnishes to CLIENT except as may be necessary for review by CLIENT’s attorney or in response to a subpoena issued by a court of competent jurisdiction unless CLIENT has WHITERISK’s prior written permission.

12. Confidentiality and Use of CLIENT’s Information. WHITERISK agrees to hold information received from CLIENT about CLIENT’s company, employees, customers, financial situation, products, plans or business (all of which shall be referred to as “Confidential Information”) in confidence and not to disclose such information to any person or entity, other than WHITERISK Professionals and/or office staff, without CLIENT’s prior written consent. The Fred R. White Risk Practice

Project Engagement Contract

(b) CLIENT understands and agrees that, unless specifically agreed in writing by WHITERISK, neither WHITERISK nor its Professionals are providing services with regard to CLIENT’s compliance with any federal, state, local or other law or regulation, specifically including but not limited to those related to OSHA, the environment and employment issues. This applies even though WHITERISK or its Professionals may make reference to, or cite, federal or state standards in accomplishing the work.

(c) CLIENT stipulates and agrees that all Work is for its own use and protection and not in connection with, on account of, or for the benefit of any insurance policy or insurance company (other than a “captive” insurer solely owned by CLIENT). This provision does not apply if CLIENT or the CLIENT Entity is an insurance company.

(d) CLIENT stipulates that neither WHITERISK nor any of its Professionals is a licensed securities dealer or broker.

14. In addition to CLIENT’s other obligations under the Contract, CLIENT agrees to do all of the following: (a) execute all documents necessary to authorize WHITERISK to gain access to the information it needs to perform the work; (b) comply on a timely basis with all reasonable requests WHITERISK may make for meetings, interviews, information and approvals of draft forms necessary for it to perform the work; and (c) respect Professional(s)’s Time and utilize such Time efficiently.

15. Interstate Commerce. By the nature of CLIENT’s and WHITERISK’s operations which include but are not limited to purchasing and handling goods from outside of Texas, providing services to customers outside of Texas, utilizing the interstate mail, telephone and highway systems, operating facilities that serve people from various states, and recruiting and advertising outside of Texas, the Parties agree that they are each and together participating in transactions involving, affecting or relating to interstate commerce; and each Party’s actions are involved in interstate commerce.

16. Breach; Equitable Relief; Injunction.

(a) In the event of a breach of the terms and covenants of this Contract by a Party, the offending Party shall indemnify and hold the others harmless from and against all direct loss or damage of any nature and kind suffered by anyone, including legal costs and fees, as a result of such a breach by the offending Party.

(b) It is understood that monetary damages may not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Contract, and it is hereby agreed that, notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 17 (Dispute or Claim Resolution), the aggrieved Party will be entitled to immediate equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, as remedies for any such breach. Such remedies shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies for any such breach but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity.

17. Dispute or Claim Resolution. Pursuant to Title 7, Section 154, et seq. of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, any claim or dispute between the Parties hereto will be resolved through negotiation, mediation or arbitration, as outlined below; the intent being that neither Party shall be permitted to pursue resolution in a court of law. All Parties waive any issue of arbitrability that may be raised and affirm that any matter remaining unresolved through negotiation and mediation shall be deemed subject to arbitration without objection. All mediation or arbitration proceedings shall be conducted within 20 miles of Dallas/Fort Worth Airport. Texas unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing.

Where the context requires, Parties, with respect to this provision, includes CLIENT, WHITERISK and its Professionals, the employees, owners, officers, directors, managers, principals, partners, co-venturers, agents, contractors, and contractors’ staffs of both CLIENT and WHITERISK and the derivative interests of all of these.

In all provisions where time frames and limits are specified, whether in this paragraph 17 or elsewhere in this Contract, the Parties and the arbitrator shall take account of extenuating circumstances in determining whether compliance with a time frame has occurred. Extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to, illness or death of a Party, Party’s key representative, or close relative of a key representative, pre-planned or unavoidable travel, force majeure, extreme weather, and the like. The Parties agree not to abuse this “extenuating circumstances” allowance.

(a) Negotiation. A Party shall give written notice to the other Party of a dispute or claim outlining the nature of the issue and the proposed remedy. The Parties shall diligently negotiate in good faith for a period of thirty (30) days. If the dispute has not been satisfactorily resolved within thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice, the Parties shall proceed to mediation.

(b) Mediation. Any Party may invoke mediation when the required attempts at negotiation have failed. The Parties shall select a mutually-agreed upon mediator as provided below. The mediation shall be convened within ten (10) days of the selection of the mediator and continue until an agreement is reached or a maximum of three (3) days, whichever is sooner. In the event no agreement is reached during the mediation, the matter shall proceed to binding arbitration.

(c) Arbitration. If the event neither negotiation nor mediation is successful in resolving the dispute between the Parties, the dispute shall be submitted to binding arbitration by a single arbitrator to be heard according to the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association. This arbitration agreement shall be governed, construed, and enforced according to the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code). In the event of any inconsistency between this agreement and such statute, this agreement shall control to the maximum extent possible. The Parties shall select a mutually-agreed upon arbitrator as provided below. The arbitrator shall hear the matter within ten (10) days following his/her selection. The arbitration shall proceed for a maximum of three (3) days, and the arbitrator shall render an award within fifteen (15) days of the hearing which shall be binding on both sides and may be enforced under the laws of the State of Texas.
(d) Honorable Engagement. The arbitrator shall consider this Contract as an honorable engagement rather than merely as a legal obligation. The arbitrator is relieved of all judicial formalities and may abstain from following the strict rules of law, and he/she may make the award with a view of effecting the general purpose of this Contract in a reasonable manner rather than in accordance with a literal interpretation of the language.

(e) Actions Constituting Breach of Contract or Engagement. The arbitrator may consider the following actions to be breach of contract or engagement: (1) failure to negotiate in good faith; (2) failure to return the strike lists to the forum within the time frame unless the other party agrees to the delay or there is a genuine emergency that prevents such prompt action; (3) filing a lawsuit in an attempt to invalidate this dispute resolution process.

(f) Selection Process for Mediator and Arbitrator: Forum.

(1) Mediator. If the Parties cannot agree on a mediator within ten (10) days after the first Party requests mediation, the Parties shall select a mutually-agreed upon mediator by means of a strike-off list composed of the names of five (5) qualified mediators. The strike-off list shall be provided by the designated forum. Within five (5) business days, each party shall strike two, rank the remaining three by preference, and return the list to the forum. The name receiving the highest ranking from both parties shall be the mediator.

(2) Arbitrator. If the Parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within twenty (20) days after the first Party requests arbitration, the designated forum shall supply a list of ten (10) qualified persons to serve as arbitrators. From the list of ten (10), each person shall have the right to strike three names from the list. Strike lists shall be returned to the forum within twenty (20) business days. The remaining names shall be ranked in order of preference by each side and the name receiving the highest preference of both parties shall serve as arbitrator.

(3) Forum. The Parties may select any forum or location to which they both agree. If the Parties cannot agree on a forum within ten (10) days after a demand for mediation or arbitration is made, the Parties shall petition the District Court of Denton County to assign a forum and designate the location of the proceeding.

(g) Official Record. There shall be no official record of a mediation other than the post mediation agreement signed by all parties. If any party or parties shall demand an official record of an arbitration proceeding, the demanding party or parties shall pay 100% of the cost of such record, and shall pay the entire cost of providing all other parties with a copy of such record.

(h) Costs. The costs of the mediators, arbitrators, and forum, except for costs of an official record or an appeal, shall be borne equally by the parties or according to the rules of the forum until a settlement is reached or an award is made. The arbitrator may award costs to the prevailing party if it deems appropriate. Each party shall bear the costs of its own representation, witnesses, document production, and other costs unless an award specifies otherwise.

(i) Appeal.

(1) The only grounds for an appeal of an arbitration award shall be: (i) incompetence of the arbitrator; (ii) abuse of discretion by the arbitrator; (iii) the arbitrator exceeded his authority; (iv) willful misconduct by the arbitrator; or (v) collusion or fraternization between the arbitrator and a party to the action or his representative.

(2) Any appeal of an arbitration award shall be heard in arbitration, unless prohibited by a court of competent jurisdiction, under the rules prescribed above except that: (i) a different arbitrator shall be selected by those rules; (ii) the appellant shall bear the entire cost of the forum and the arbitrator unless the appellant is victorious; (iii) if the appellant is unsuccessful in the appeal, the appellant must pay the appellee's entire costs associated with the appeal.

18. Changes; Waivers. (a) This Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties respecting the subject matter hereof. (b) No changes or modification of any provision of this Contract shall be effective unless said change or amendment shall be in writing and signed by an officer of both Parties. (c) No waiver by either CLIENT or WHITERISK of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Contract shall be effective unless said waiver shall be in writing and signed by an officer or owner of the waiving party.

19. Notices and Contact. Notices required by a Contract shall be in writing and shall be either delivered by hand, by United States mail, by confirmed email, or by an accepted express delivery company such as FedEx or UPS to the addresses shown below in the signature section of this Contract or as may be amended in writing by the parties. The Parties have an obligation to notify each other of any address or telephone number changes.

20. Waiver of Defense; Severability. The Parties agree and acknowledge that the foregoing covenants are reasonable and waive any defense to the strict enforcement by any of the Parties. If any provision of this Contract is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, whether as a result of the duration or scope of such provision or otherwise, any such provision shall be construed by limiting and reducing it so as to be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law or, if such limitation or reduction is not possible, such provision shall be severed from this Contract, and the remaining provisions of this Contract shall continue in full force and effect.
21. Supersession of Prior Agreements. This Contract supersedes and terminates any prior agreements of contracts relating to the particular subject matter between CLIENT and WHITERISK.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have caused this Contract to be executed by their duly authorized representatives as of the day and year written below.
